

Get the Essence of Satisfaction

By Dealing with a Strictly Reliable House

When it's Jewelry, Watch Repairing, Optical Work or kindred lines you want, come to the Leading Establishment in those particular lines, where you get your money back if you are not satisfied. Our reputation is pretty good, too, as the old saying serves as proof, "Imitation is the Sincerest Flattery," so it don't make me mad to have others copy the simple and upright business methods I am using.

Republican Candidates

U. S. Senator—Hon. H. M. Cke, was U. S. Senator, is all that we can ask for in one candidate. Mr. Cke is a man of pleasing appearance, an eloquent speaker, a man that understands the political situation. While many regret that Mr. Fulton was beaten, yet we realize, by the vote Mr. Cke received in his home county that he is as popular there as Mr. Fulton was here. Mr. Cke is deserving of his party vote.

Congressman—W. C. Hawley points to his past record with pride; in fact his record is his platform.

Justice of the Supreme Court—R. S. Bean needs no special mention.

Dairy and Food Commissioner—J. W. Bailey is also a winner.

R. R. Commissioner—T. K. Campbell is a man for the people and is entitled to the support of the entire party.

Prosecuting Attorney—D. V. Kaykendall, as Prosecuting Attorney, is practically without opposition. He is well qualified and Klamath and Lake Counties are to be congratulated on having been able to place so competent an attorney in nomination for the place.

State Senator—Geo. H. Merryman, as State Senator, is a rising young Statesman having served one term in the Lower House and demonstrated his ability.

Representatives—Our State Representatives, H. P. Belknap and H. A. Brattain, are strong candidates and will more than poll their party strength.

Sheriff—W. B. Barnes is well qualified to fill the office, having served as assessor of Lake County, also as deputy sheriff. He has a good education, is an active man, well acquainted with all the surrounding county and make an efficient officer. Vote for him.

County Clerk—C. R. Delap, as County Clerk, is well known to you all, having served this county as School Superintendent in a way that is a credit to himself. He is now serving as Deputy Sheriff of this county and is known to be a thoroughly competent man.

County Treasurer—L. Alva Lewis, as Treasurer, is well known to you all and he points with pride to his past record.

School Superintendent—J. G. Swan is a man that has been conspicuously before the public for the past five years and has accomplished wonders in educational lines. He is well fitted for the place.

Assessor—Bert E. Withrow, as Assessor, is the right man in the right place, having served a number of years in the Abstract Office and having a complete abstract of every piece of deeded land in the county, puts him in a position to better judge the value of real estate than any other man we know.

County Surveyor—M. D. Williams has been conspicuously before the public during his term of office. His work speaks for his efficiency.

County Commissioner—C. J. Swingle is a pioneer of Klamath County. He is a conservative business man and has made a success with his own business venture, and it is fair to assume that he will do as well with the county business.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

AN APPEAL.

Dry your tears, dear April.
Try your best to smile.
What's the use, sweet sister,
Weeping all the while?
True enough, your springing
Makes the pollen start.
Still you needn't take it
Quite so much to heart.

Once a day is plenty.
Truly, goodness knows.
For your large endeavor
With your busy nose.
That will make the moisture
Start the buds of May.
We could stand once only
Every other day.

You're appreciated
Doubtless, April, dear.
Still you are too busy
Offentimes, I fear.
Do not be so frequent
With your water cure.
Don't try to discover
What we can endure.

Try us with a happy
Medium. Perhaps
We would with that treatment
Buffer no relapse.
You are much too thorough.
Do your work too well.
On your job of weeping
Try to find a spell.

Know the Remedy.
"Oh, doctor," said the languid young lady, dropping into the softest chair in the office, "I am so sick! I do hope you can tell me what to do to get well."

"What are the symptoms?" asked the doctor. "Let us find out first what ails you, and then we will see what we can do."

"Oh, doctor, can't you make up the symptoms?"
"But how can I do that?"
"You ought to do that easy enough. I want a set of symptoms that call for a six months' trip to Europe."

Misunderstood.

"Lady, I haven't eaten anything for a week."

"How interesting! I have a cousin that is crazy about the fasting fad. He claims it will do wonders. Won't you come around in a week and let me know how you feel?"

Make a Difference.
"Old Jenkins doesn't seem to have much of a reputation for truth and veracity."

"No, indeed. I wouldn't believe him under oath. Would you?"

"Well, not unless he was my witness."

Nightmares.
He—Mrs. Jones has a new bonnet.
She—Yes. Isn't it a dream?
He—Maybe it is, but if I had dreams like that I would be sending for the doctor.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Undoubtedly cooks and housewives belong to the peripatetic school of philosophy.

Maybe all men are liars, but even then they would stop at once if their own wives were called to it unless they collect a commission upon it.

It isn't really so interesting to know what is the first thing you would do under given circumstances as it is to know what is the last.

The man that gets what he generally feels dissatisfied with, can find some fault with it.

Don't worry about making mistakes good and the friends will out for themselves.
